MINISTER SUES LUTHERAN SYNOD

Rev. John Erler Charges Illegal Action in being Ousted from His Charge at Seven Valleys. May Claim Large Damages.

It is probable that the Seven Valleys Evangelical Lutheran church trouble will be aired in the York county court in the shape of a suit for damages, for Rev. John Erler has retained Jere S. Black, of York, who has filed a suit in trespass against the synod and church officials and it is intimated that he will demand $25,000 or $30,000 damages for illegal actions on the part of these officials. The defendants number more than a score of persons, Yorkers and others.

Those named in the suit are Rev. George M. Diffenderfer, of Carlisle, president of West Pennsylvania synod; Rev. Albert Bell, York, treasurer of West Pennsylvania synod; Rev. A. S. Hain, New Freedom, formerly an official of the New York synod, and the following officials of the congregations formerly served by Rev. Mr. Erler: John H. Huett, William Bupp, C. E. Henry and C. W. Klinedinst, Seven Valleys; John Taylor, Anson Lentz, John Heiss, Eli Goodling, Lewis Krall, Eli Henry, Jacob Bailey and Jacob Krall, of Scheuster's congregation; and Jacob Brenneman, Abner Brenneman, William Glatfelter, William Becker, Luther Kessler, Georg Watter and Henry Hess, of Ziegler's congregation.

It is said that rumors reflecting on Rev. Mr. Erler's character followed him from his former pastorate in the New York synod to his York county charge, and these, said to be investigated by the West Pennsylvania synod, resulted in his being ousted as pastor of the three churches. By advice of his counsel, however, he remains in the parsonage. Mr. Erler claims that the actions on the part of the synod and church officials were not legal and it is said he claims to be damaged and that a considerable amount of salary has been improperly withheld from him.

The suit is brought against the above named persons as individuals. No statement of damages has yet been filed.

ANOTHER CORN BAKE

Eagles Hold their First Corn Bake at John Kime's Farm.

Gettysburg "Eagles" held their first corn bake Thursday evening at the farm of John Kime, near Table Rock. Nearly seventy-five members and their friends journeyed there in automobiles provided for the occasion, during the early part of the evening. In addition to corn, almost everything else that could be readily prepared in the open was included in the menu. The affair was so thoroughly enjoyed that the members decided to make it an annual gathering.

ST. JAMES WINS ANOTHER GAME

Methodists are Beaten by 5-0 Score. Small Crowd Witnessed well Played Game. Good Work throughout by Pitcher Hartzell.

A 5 to 0 shut out was given the Methodists by the St. James Lutherans, at the game on Thursday evening; the only scoring done was in the first and second innings. Collection $5.21.

Hartzell was in the box for the Lutherans and pitched a steady game, having nine strike outs to his credit. Funt, for the Methodists, had five and his control was not as good as was Hartzell's.

The Methodists won the toss up and took first bat but were unable to score in the first half. However, the Lutherans took advantage of their half for three runs, when McClell took first, being hit by a pitched ball, stole second. McDonnell and Gentzler both walked, thus advancing McClell to third. Here is where Hartzell practically won his own game, for, with all the bags full, he drove out a long, low hit, which was good for two bases, and scored all three men who were on bases. This was all the scoring done in this inning.

The beginning of the second saw the Methodists again unable to score, but the Lutherans made two runs when their time arrived to bat. W. Oyler singled, stole second; Patterson took first on an error of the centre fielder, in the meanwhile, Oyler took third. McClell, who was next up, hit Funt's fast curves for a nice single and Oyler and Patterson both scored. This ended the scoring for both sides as the remaining three innings saw men on base but no one was able to advance further than second. The game on Thursday evening was witnessed by perhaps several hundred spectators. The crowd was not nearly so large as at Wednesday night's game, but was more like base-ball than the exhibitions put up by the several opposing teams on the two previous nights.

To-night's game will be Reformed vs. College.

FEW PETITIONS ARE YET FILED

Candidates Slow in Filing Applications for Primary Election. Tuesday August 26th Last Day. Gettysburg Offices go Begging.

With the last day for filing candidates petitions only three days off, but a few more than one hundred of a probable thousand petitions are in the hands of the County Commissioners. According to the provisions of the new primary law, Tuesday, August 26th, is the date set for all candidates to have their application filed.

There are at present, thirty-seven election precincts in the county. According to the activity recently shown by the Washington party, it is reasonably certain that they will have a full ticket in all the districts. At the coming election there are ten offices to be filled, with three parties contesting the field; consequently each of the thirty-seven districts will probably have thirty candidates. If the respective party leaders are looking after their tickets this means that there will be an unprecedented rush to file petitions on the last day.

The office of burgess in Gettysburg seems to be going begging. No petition for this office has been filed and inquiry fails to discover any one flitting with the position. There is the munificent salary of $50 per year and considerable responsibility connected with the office. The honor does not seem sufficient to excite applicants. For two school directors with six year terms, there is one lone applicant; Charles S. Speese, democrat. Vacancies for six town councilmen have produced one applicant, in the person of J. Edward Swift, democrat. Two democratic candidates for tax collector have announced themselves; Harry E. Bumbaugh, the present incumbent, and Emory J. Plank. The first and second wards each have one candidate for assessor, while the third ward has two.

A petition will be acted upon at Court at its session next week for two additional precincts, by the voters of Mt. Pleasant township, Mt. Pleasant is one of the large townships of the county and has at the present time but one polling place, located at Brush Run school house. The petition states that it is a great inconvenience to the voters from distant parts of the precinct to come to Brush Run to cast their ballots.

NEW STORAGE LAW TO BE ENFORCED

State Inspector Expected Here Soon Provisions of the Act. Carlisle Butcher Admonished. Little Likelihood of Trouble Here.

An inspector for the state pure food department and the Pennsylvania state livestock sanitary board, probably Prof. C. A. Cochran, of West Chester, who has been assigned to inspect a number of plants in this vicinity, will visit Gettysburg within the next few days to inspect the local meat shops and the plant of the Gettysburg Ice and Storage Company with a view to enforce the new cold storage law which went into effect during the past week.

It is said that the new law will be strictly enforced by the state pure food department, whose representatives have completed an inspection of all plants in the state and have given instructions to owners regarding the provisions of the bill. The law provides a time limit for every article in cold storage; the date of entry and date of removal must be stamped on every article for the inspection of the retail buyer. No food kept in cold storage in other states shall be sold here. All cold storage firms are required to make a quarterly report to the state dairy and food commissioner.

For violation of any of the provisions of the act a fine of not exceeding $500 is provided for the first offense, and $1,000, or 30 to 90 days' imprisonment, or both, for the second and subsequent offenses.

The following time limit has been fixed for all foods in cold storage:

Beef, four months; pork, six months; lamb, six months; veal, three months; dressed fowl, drawn, five months; dressed fowl, undrawn, ten months; eggs, eight months; butter, nine months; fish, nine months. Foods, therefore, which are kept in cold storage over these periods cease to be legally saleable for food purposes.

All cold storage articles exposed for sale must be marked "wholesome cold storage food" and, the act says, "the retailers must wrap in wrappers, plainly stamped on the outside with the words, 'wholesome cold storage food' in letters one-quarter inch square, and such wrapper must bear the date of the original entry into cold storage."

The regulations drawn up by the dairy and food commission detail rules for the marketing of products, shipments in refrigerator cars, removal to one storage house from another, and scope of the quarterly reports. The license fee to be paid after the commission has passed on the building is $50. Several days ago, during the visit of the inspector to Carlisle, one of the butchers in that place was fined for noncompliance with the act and several others warned that their products did not comply in all respects with the provisions as set forth.

It is not expected that there will be any difficulty here as there is little complaint with the operation of the town butcher shops. The local ice plant does a very small storage business and only for the accommodation of its customers, who, of course, assume responsibility for their own products. The company does not buy any articles of food with the purpose of selling them.

THAW WINS POINT IN LEGAL BATTLE

Succeeds in Having Case Put Over Until Wednesday.

ARE FIGHTING FOR DELAY

Opposition Hoped Thaw Would Be Discharged on Present Charge and Allowed to Fall Into Their Hands.

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 22.—It took nine attorneys to get a six days' delay in legal procedure against Harry K. Thaw, but they got it.

Result: There is not the ghost of a chance that Sherbrooke's prisoner can be deported or extradited in anything short of a week—more probably never. Everything indicates that Canadian sympathy is with Thaw and is going to do all that it can in its psychological way to keep Harry Thaw away from Matteawan.

The habeas corpus hearing to secure Thaw's release will be heard next Wednesday.

New York state representatives and Dominion Immigration officers protested at the delay, but Superior Court Judge Globensky announced that as a circuit judge he would not return from Montreal until next week.

As soon as Judge Globensky had agreed with Thaw's lawyers in his chamber at the court house that the habeas corpus writ would be served immediately and made returnable on Wednesday of next week, a group of the prisoner's lawyers jumped into an automobile and were at the Sherbrooke jail in two minutes.

They served the paper on Governor Laforce, of the jail, and then departed, chucking that they had won delay. No sooner were they out of sight that Sheriff Hornbeck, of Dutchess county, New York, with a body guard of men, were waiting at the jail entrance; an automobile was nearby.

Everybody but the New York officers had overlooked the fact that the writ, while made returnable Wednesday by agreement with Judge Globensky, ordered Governor Laforce to produce him immediately at the court house.

Laforce knew nothing about the Wednesday agreement. He had been waiting for the chance of conducting Thaw to court. Forthwith he slipped on his coat and hat and mounted the stairs to get Thaw. Just as he was about to open the iron gate a telephone bell rang downstairs. Laforce was in two minds what to do. Finally he decided to answer the bell. It was Judge Globensky, who had recalled his error just before his train for Montreal pulled into the Sherbrooke station.

"Laforce?" said the judge. "Yes, sir." "Thaw writ is for Wednesday. Goodbye."

Sheriff Hornbeck and his companions, of course, denied that there had been any design on their part to take advantage of an almost clear road and carry Thaw across the border by force.

The opposition hoped that Thaw would be produced, discharged on the present defective commitment and thus allowed to fall into their hands for deportation at a point on the border as yet undecided.

Thaw's lawyers, however, believing in the advantage of delay, declined to serve their writ on the jailer, and Thaw remained in his hospital ward cell chatting with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Landier Carnegie.

Superior Judge Globensky was then sought by the immigration officials and the officers from New York to insist on the service of the writ, ostensibly returnable forthwith, but the court held that Thaw's lawyers were within their rights.

The case has reached a stage where the usual relations of the parties to a criminal action are absolutely reversed. On the one hand, the lawyers for the prisoner were found fighting to prolong his imprisonment, while the authorities, local, Dominion and United States, were anxious to have him set free, safe in the belief that the immigration officials would seize him and force him across the border.

DYNAMITE FOR GAYNOR

Sticks Found Under Office Window Believed to Be Explosive.

New York, Aug. 22.—Six sticks of what is believed to be dynamite were found under a window of Mayor Gaynor's suite of offices in the city hall.

Fire Commissioner Johnson, passing at the time, ordered an inspector of the bureau of combustibles to come to the city hall to examine the find.

From a superficial examination, the inspector said he thought the substance was dynamite. He too the sticks to fire headquarters for a further test.

RICHARD J. BUTLER.

Accused of Aiding Thaw In Plot to Escape Asylum.

Police think they have laid bare the plot which was successful in freeing Harry Thaw from the Matteawan asylum, although he only remained free for forty-eight hours. Ex-Assemblyman Richard J. Butler is said to have hired the big touring car in which the flight was made. The car was found near Rochester, N. H. It is asserted that negotiations for the plot were begun at least a month ago. Estimates of the amounts said to have been paid those who aided Thaw to escape range from $10,000 to $25,000.

GLYNN AND SULZER ASK THAW'S RETURN

New York's Two Governors Wire Secretary Bryan.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Both the men who contend to be the New York state chief executive were busy on the Thaw case, and these were much telegraphing and telephoning.

Governor Sulzer made his initial move in the matter, so far as he has disclosed, when he telegraphed Secretary of State Bryan, at Washington, asking that the American consul general at Ottawa advise the Canadian authorities to return Thaw to the jurisdiction of New York state at Rouse's Point.

Several hours previously Acting Governor Glynn, conjointly with Attorney General Carmody, sent a telegram in duplicate to Mr. Bryan and to the federal secretary of commerce requesting them "in the name of the state of New York" to ask Canadian immigration authorities to deport Harry K. Thaw to the state of New York. The telegram emphasized the importance of haste.

There also was an exchange of telegrams between Mr. Glynn and Commissioner Scott and Fred C. Blair, superintendent of the bureau of immigration at Ottawa.

Sulzer Gets Governor's Mail.

Washington, Aug. 22.—William Sulzer continues to be the governor of New York so far as the postoffice department is concerned, and no mail addressed to "The Governor of New York" or simply "William Sulzer, Governor," is being delivered into other hands.

It is announced that no definite action would be taken in connection with the New York governorship fight unless a controversy over the delivery of mail matter was brought formally to the attention of the department. In that event the postal regulations require that the mail be held at the Albany postoffice until a decision as to its disposition has been reached by the postoffice department officials.

BLACK HAT STILL SMARTEST

Dominant Color in Millinery, Either Alone or in Combination With Shades of a Softer Hue.

Even yet the black hat continues to attract universal attention, and when any color is introduced at all it is always most tentative. Those exceedingly ugly, hard tulle aigrettes, reminiscent of a baby's rattle, are no longer to be seen, and arisen in their place are the most fascinating ornaments of aigrette type, but effected very lightly in plisse rain-proof tulle. On a little black tulle shape, the crown arranged for all the world like a mob cap, and set within a narrow drawn brim that had quite a little mushroom tendency in front, but gently rolled upwards at the back, a fanlike arrangement of black plisse tulle was poised, backed by a similar arrangement of white tulle. The affair rose to an appreciable height, while right in front there lay, as though it had just been flung there, a small bow of deep plum blue velvet.—Queen.

PRETTY HOUSE GOWN.

Though the lines of this little bodice are simple, there is a deal of work on it, as any dressmaker will attest. It is made of white chiffon, laid over flesh pink chiffon, and is trimmed with shadow lace, corded pipings and rhinestone buttons. It accompanies a draped skirt of dove gray lansdowne, a silk and wool fabric that is graceful and clinging in character.

WILSON TO TELL MEXICAN PLAN

President Will Detail Peace Efforts in Message.

PENROSE WANTS TROOPS

Pennsylvania Senator in Resolution Proposes Emergency Fund of 25,000,000 to Protect Americans.

Washington, Aug. 22.—There were important developments in the Mexican situation. President Wilson began work on a message which he will send to congress Monday.

In this message he will outline in detail the proposals submitted by this government to Huerta, the reply of the Mexican president, and his own views on the Mexican situation.

The president's hope is that the situation will disentangle itself, though he believes it will take a little time to dispel certain illusions possessed by the Huerta government as to the attitude of the American people and congress.

The president let it be known that the question was not a party one and that Republican senators had shown an admirable spirit in his conferences with them and not the slightest partisanship had been exhibited.

The president believes the debate in congress will serve to refute the contention of Provisional President Huerta that the administration policy toward Mexico is not supported by all political parties.

Incidentally it was learned that since the presentation of the Huerta reply Monday, which has been received in full at the state department, nothing of significance has occurred in the conferences between John Lind and Senator Penrose. Mr. Lind has not abandoned hope, however, of convincing Provisional President Huerta of the argument made in the first American note, and there is no intention to recede from the attitude then taken.

American troops for police duty in Mexico for protection of foreign lives and property and an emergency appropriation of $25,000, to be expended under the direction of the president for that purpose, were proposed in a resolution by Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania. He did not ask the senate to adopt his resolution and it went over under the rules.

A concerted effort on the part of Republicans and Democrats to support President Wilson in his Mexican policy and to carry to the world the definite information that the president has the full support of the American people, without taint of partisanship, at once became apparent.

Introduction of the resolution was followed by a general demand by Republicans, seconded by Senator Bacon, chairman of the foreign relations committee, for a cessation of all debate and for support of President Wilson.

Emphatic and concerted declarations from senators of both parties of their confidence in the wisdom and good faith of the president were plainly an answer to reports from Mexico that Provisional President Huerta has contended that the president had a divided congress and a divided public opinion behind him.

FAST WORK ON TARIFF

Flax and Silk Schedules Are Quickly Approved.

Washington, Aug. 22.—Rapid progress was made in consideration of the tariff bill.

The flax and silk schedules were approved as amended by the finance committee and Democratic caucus. Senators McCumber and Gronna ineffectually sought to transfer flax from the free to the dutiable list. To the silk schedule, which gave the finance committee much trouble, having been entirely rewritten with specific duties substituted for the house ad valorem rates in most instances, not an amendment was offered nor a criticism made by a minority member.

One paragraph relating to woven fabrics in the piece at 45 per cent ad valorem was passed over at the request of Chairman Simmons for revision. The schedule was disposed of in fifteen minutes.

Forest Fire Imperils City.

Biddeford, Me., Aug. 22.—A forest fire, driven by a stiff south wind, now threatens this city. The flames were within half a mile of the business section. A riot call brought out all the available fire fighting apparatus, the Seventh Coast Artillery and a company of militia, making a force of 300 men to fight the fire.

Leave Boy to Drown.

Norristown, Pa., Aug. 22.—John Tobin, eleven years old, of West Manayunk, was drowned in Nanar creek, at Lafayette. He was wading with companions and stepped into a deep hole. Instead of trying to save him the other boys ran half a mile for assistance. When they returned the boy was dead.

Memphis Postmaster Falls Dead. Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 22.—Major J. C. French, appointed postmaster here about two months ago, dropped dead from apoplexy at his breakfast table, aged seventy-two years. He was a Confederate veteran and had been employed in the postoffice for more than twenty-five years.

FRANKLIN K. LANE.

Secretary of Interior Says Pink Teas Eat Up $12,000 Salary.

PINK TEAS EAT INTO SALARY

Take All That's Left of Cabinet Man's Pay, Declares Lane.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 22.—"It takes all my cabinet salary of $12,000 to maintain my home and to buy ice cream and serve pink teas," said Secretary of the Interior Lane, while discussing here the high cost of living for government officials in Washington.

Secretary Lane said that the actual expense of maintaining his home is $10,000 a year, and that the little side entertainments expected of a cabinet officer and which he designates as ice cream and pink teas eat up the remaining $2,000 of his salary.

LEAVES $75,000 TO HER LAWYER

Relatives of Cumberland Woman May Contest Will.

Cumberland, Md., Aug. 22.—A sensation was caused here by the announcement that Mrs. Margaret McCray, aged thirty-seven years, widow of William L. McCray, who died after an illness of two days from acute pneumonia, had left her entire estate to Captain J. Philip Roman, a young lawyer of Cumberland and son-in-law of James Clark, the millionaire head of the James Clark Distilling company.

Roman is no relative of Mrs. McCray, who has two brothers and a sister, Mrs. Herbst, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and also a number of nephews. It is said that the will, which was drawn after she was fatally stricken, will be contested by her relatives.

Captain Roman, as attorney for Mrs. McCray, drew the will, which was witnessed by Dr. Thomas W. Koon, police and fire commissioner, who was her physician, and Charles W. Fries, a clerk in the Baltimore & Ohio railroad office.

The estate of Mrs. McCray is estimated at about $75,000. Her husband died in June of last year while manager of a theater. A few weeks ago Mrs. McCray presented Captain Roman with her new automobile.

HOLD WOMEN FOR SMUGGLING

Accused of Undervaluing Jewels and Clothing to Extent of $10,000.

New York, Aug. 22.—Mrs. William L. Velle, wife of the president of the Velle Motor company, of Moline, Ill., and her companion, Miss Mary J. Lilly, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Stanton in Hoboken, N. J., charged with attempting to smuggle jewelry and wearing apparel into this country.

The customs officials believe that Mrs. Velle's undeclared jewels and clothing will amount to $10,000. She was paroled in custody of her counsel for a hearing on Monday, by which time the contents of her four trunk trunks will have been examined.

London, Aug. 22.—The engagement of Jack Johnson by a London music hall was condemned at a meeting of the Variety Artists' Federation. A resolution adopted characterized the engagement as a violation of public decency. It seems likely that his engagement will be canceled.

NEW LAW LIMITS RAILROAD PASSES

Employees' Families May Lose Privileges.

EFFECTIVE FIRST OF YEAR

Public Utilities Act in Pennsylvania Forbids Free Transportation to All But Employees of Railroads.

Philadelphia, Aug. 22.—Unless some railroad employee or labor union is able to obtain a favorable interpretation from the public service commission or from the courts of a law passed by the last legislature, the wives and other members of families of railroad officials and employees will lose the free passes they have so long enjoyed, after Jan. 1, when the law goes into effect.

The knowledge that the act forbids the railroads or any other "common carrier," engaged in the transportation business for profit, to issue passes to the wives, children and other dependents of employees, has not heretofore spread to the latter. The information is expected to result in a loud protest by the employees, whose families have been enjoying the privileges of free transportation.

The railroads of the state have been liberal in granting passes to officers and employees, their wives, children and other relatives wholly dependent on them for support and living in the same house. Under the new act such transportation could be granted by the railroad only if it desires to assume the risk of prosecution for violation of the law and of paying a fine of $500 for each offense.

A railroad official said that if the section of the act prohibiting the issuance of passes except to officers and employees had become known pending consideration of the bill in the legislature, there would have been a "howl of protest" by railroad men from every section of the state. He predicted that the information will act "like a bombshell" when it reaches railroad employees.

There is a provision of the constitution of Pennsylvania, however, which has long prohibited the issuance of passes to others than officers and employees of transportation companies. Either they have ignored the constitution in this respect, have not had it called to their attention, or it has not been enforced, for the fact remains that passes have been and are still issued to the families of railroad officials and employees.

While neither the constitution nor the public utilities act regarding passes states that they shall not be issued to the families of officers or employees, the legislation in both cases specifies that the free transportation shall be granted only to officers and employees. Thus the families and other relatives, dependent on the officers or employees for a livelihood, are shut out from passes under the law.

There are 150,000 Pennsylvania railroad employees east of Pittsburgh who will be unable to obtain passes for wives, children or other dependents when the act becomes effective. The Philadelphia & Reading has 30,000 employees in the state, and the Baltimore & Ohio railroad employees, numbering about 10,000 in Pennsylvania, also will be denied pass privileges except for themselves.

TRY TO KILL ROUMANIAN KING

Bandits Foiled in Attempt to Assassinate Monarch and Queen.

London, Aug. 22.—Revolver shots were fired by bandits at King Charles and Queen Elizabeth (Carmen Sylva) of Roumania as they were riding in an automobile.

The attempted assassination took place near Sinala, a fashionable health resort in Roumania, in the Carpathian mountains, according to special dispatches received in London. Neither of their majesties was injured.

As soon as the bandits began firing the chauffeur speeded up his machine, and succeeded in carrying the king and queen to safety.

1000 SCRANTON MINERS OUT

Pine Brook Shaftworkers Strike When Engineer Ignores Union.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 22.—One thousand men struck at the Pine Brook shaft of the Scranton Coal company because an engineer had refused to reinstate himself in the union.

The strike of 1200 men at the Lackawanna Coal company's mine at Blakely over pillar robbing has become a lockout, the company deciding on a shutdown to make repairs.

The strike involving 600 men at the Sibley colliery, Old Forge, is ended.

Snatches Bundle of Money.

New York, Aug. 22.—Under the eyes of a heavily-armed guard watching the transfer of a fortune in gold bullion and currency from an express wagon to the vaults of the National Park bank, a man sprang from the sidewalk, seized a package of bank notes and darted away. He was pursued by express messengers and caught after a chase of two blocks.

JOLO'S GOVERNOR IS ATTACKED BY MOROS

Whitney Slays Two Assaultants, But is Badly Wounded.

Manila, Aug. 22.—Vernon L. Whitney, of Iowa, governor of Jolo, had a narrow escape when attacked treacherously by Moros.

He received five barong wounds, but probably will recover. He killed both of his assailants after a dramatic struggle.

Governor Whitney had just completed an inspection of the scout camp at Baal Loc and had sent his interpreter to order his launch. The interpreter was attacked by Moros, but escaped. Whitney heard of the attack and as he ran to investigate he met two Moros, who approached in a friendly manner, then suddenly attacked him.

Whitney clinched with one of the Moros while he shot the other, and then with a struggle wrested the barong from the other man and finished him with it.

Medical Advertising WORKED LIKE MAGIC.

Red Scaly Eczema Yields to Our Reliable Skin Remedy, Saxo Salve.

A Highland, N. Y., woman writes: Since 1901 I suffered from eczema and my skin was very tender, red and scaly, and I could find no relief until I used Saxo Salve. The first application worked like magic, in less than a week the scales were gone and now the skin is healed and smooth, thanks to Saxo Salve.

In all forms of eczema, and all other crusted or scaly humors and eruptions, Saxo Salve has given astonishingly good results. The great improvement that it makes in the first few days shows plainly that you can place full trust in its curative power.

We have so much confidence in it that we give back your money if you are not satisfied with Saxo Salve. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

P. S. Skin troubles indicate impure, impoverished blood. Vinol is the most successful blood tonic we know. Try it on our guarantee.

FRECKLES

DON'T HIDE THEM WITH A VEIL; REMOVE THEM WITH THE OTHINE PRESCRIPTION

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by your druggist under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

Don't Nurse Corns

Try This Remedy

You can't be dissatisfied with Putnam's Corn Extractor; it is not only the one first Corn Doctor, but as thousands know, it is the best. Putnam's Extractor is not a greasy salve that runs all over the foot and inflames it,—no, Putnam's is made to go right at corns—to root them out for all time to come. You can remove your corn quickly with a 25c. bottle, sold and recommended by druggists and People's Drug Store.

FOR SALE: engine, sawmill, and shingle mill, all complete and in good running condition. Apply to John A. Walter, Orrtanna, Pa.—advertisement
